P.O. DRAWER 1002
CAMDEN, DELAWARE 19934

ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING PARKING REGULATIONS FOR THE STREETS AND ROADWAYS WITHIN THE LIMITS OF THE TOWN OF CAMDEN AND PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS THEROF.

ORDINANCE NUMBER 62

SECTION 1 General Provisions

§ 1.1. Title and scope.

This ordinance shall be known as the "Town of Camden Parking Ordinance," which establishes standards for parking areas covered by this ordinance and is herein sometimes referred to as the "Town Parking Code" or "Code" and shall apply to and include the entire Town of Camden, Delaware.

§ 1.2. Purpose.

This ordinance is intended to protect the public safety, health and welfare, on existing streets, as hereinafter provided, by:

- A. Establishing parking standards for existing streets within the Town of Camden and for safe, thoughtful parking patterns along said streets;
- B. Fixing the parking responsibilities of owners, operators and occupants of all vehicles; and
- C. Providing for administration, enforcement and penalties.

§ 1.3. Applicability.

The provisions of the Town Parking Code shall apply to existing streets within the Town of Camden. The provisions are designed to eliminate or prevent substandard parking conditions with respect to vision and to provide adequate for emergency vehicular traffic, eliminate unsafe conditions and overcrowding. Every portion of a street used or intended to be used for parking purposes shall comply with the provisions of this ordinance.

§ 1.4. Interpretation.

The provisions of this ordinance shall be interpreted by the enforcing Police Officer from these ordinance's specifications in order to minimize threat to the health, safety and general welfare of the residents and vehicle owners.

§ 1.5. Effect on other regulations:

- A. This ordinance does not replace or modify requirements otherwise established for the parking requirements or use of parking areas related thereto.
- B. Nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to abolish or impair existing rights or remedies of the Town of Camden or its Officers or agencies relating to the removal of any vehicle(s) which are deemed unsafe, or in violation with other Town Ordinances or State Law.
- C. As determined by the Police Officer in any case, where a provision of any other ordinance, regulation or statute of the Town of Camden existing on the effective date of this ordinance or hereafter enacted establishes a lower standard for the promotion and protection of the safety and health of the public, the provisions of this ordinance shall govern.

§ 1.6. Word usage and definitions.

- A. Word usage. Words used in the present tense include the future. The singular includes the plural, and the plural includes the singular. Unless otherwise expressly stated, where terms are not defined under the provisions of this ordinance, they shall have ascribed to them their ordinarily accepted meanings or such as the context herein may imply. Whenever the words "roadway," "motor vehicle," "alley," "highways," "lanes," or "avenues" are used in this ordinance, they shall be construed as though they were followed by the words "or any part thereof."

- B. As used in this ordinance, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

“Chief of Police” shall mean the Chief of Police of the Town of Camden.

“Officer” shall mean any certified Police Officer of the Town of Camden.

“Police Officer” shall mean any certified Police officer of the Town of Camden.

“Roadway” shall include all streets, alleys, roadways, highways, lanes and avenues within the limits of the Town of Camden.

“Motor Vehicle” shall mean any vehicle which is self propelled.

SECTION 2 Administration and Enforcement
Ordinance Number 62

§ 2.1. Administrative liability.

Except as may otherwise be provided by state statute, no officer, agent or employee of the Town of Camden charged with the enforcement of this ordinance shall be rendered personally liable for any damage that may accrue to persons or property as a result of any act required or permitted in the discharge of duties under this ordinance. No person who institutes or assists in the prosecution of a criminal proceeding under this ordinance shall be liable for damage therefore unless such person acted with actual malice and without reasonable grounds for believing that the person accused or prosecuted was guilty of an unlawful act or omission. Any civil suit brought against any Officer, agent or employee of the Town of Camden as a result of any act required or permitted in the discharge of duties under this ordinance shall be defended by the Town Solicitor until the final determination of the proceedings therein.

§ 2.2. Conflict of interest.

No Officer or employee who has an official duty in connection with the administration and enforcement of this ordinance shall engage in any activity, which is inconsistent with the public interest and the officer's official duties.

§ 2.3. Records.

- A. The Officer shall keep or cause to be kept records concerning the enforcement of this ordinance's provisions, which records shall be opened to public inspection.

§ 2.4. Violations and penalties.

- A. Unlawful acts. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to park any motor vehicle in conflict with or in violation of any of the provisions of this ordinance.
- B. Penalty for violation. Any person who shall violate any provisions of this ordinance or who fails to comply with any notice issued by an Officer pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance shall be fined not less than $20.00. This fee is to be collected by the Camden Town Hall.

§ 2.5. Existing violations.

This ordinance shall not affect violations of any other ordinance, code or regulation of the State of Delaware or municipality existing prior to the effective date hereof, and any such violation shall be governed and shall continue to be enforced to the full extent of the law under the provisions of such ordinances, codes or regulations in effect at the time the violation was committed.
